Freelancing | Project

- Have already created several landing pages using React JS and Next JS.
- Created a social media platform with the team. Here the UI has been created using react js, the API has been added using Axios and the state has been managed using Zustand.
- In my e-commerce project, I developed a scalable and secure backend using Express.js. The backend managed user authentication, product management, order processing, and payment integration. I implemented JWT-based authentication and utilized MongoDB with Mongoose for data storage while enforcing security measures such as rate limiting and CORS.
